(54) Title: A CONTAINER AND COMBINATION PACKAGING

WO 2005/097602 A3

(57) Abstract: The invention relates to an outer container for holding an inner container in particular where the inner container has a sensitive product. The outer container comprises at least one of a moveable display board (3); retaining formations (20) for retaining a hygroscopic element; or a stand (19) for gripping the base of the inner container to retain it in an upright position. The invention also relates to a combination pack comprising the inner container retained in the outer container, particularly where the inner container holds a moisture sensitive product such as an adhesive.
